

Description:

Sexual harassment is a serious problem in the workplace. Victims of sexual harassment can suffer physical and emotional damage while companies can suffer financially from the negative publicity and litigation costs as well as from the loss of job productivity and deteriorated work environment for its employees. This course has been designed to help prevent incidents of sexual harassment in the workplace as well as provide guidelines on what to do if such an incident occurs. It aims to help employees recognize the seriousness of violations of sexual harassment policy. After completing the course, you should have a good idea of what sexual harassment is, how it affects the workplace environment, what your role is in preventing it, and what to do if you are a victim. This training course has 10 learning modules with a ten-question exam.
